Galeria Plan B is pleased to announce the group exhibition Basel By Berlin with works of Ion Bitzan, Adrian Ghenie, Ciprian Muresan, Iulia Nistor, Serban Savu and Ran Zhang, to open on Wednesday, the 17th of June 2020.

Basel By Berlin is the analog counterpart to Art Basel's Digital Online Viewing Room and it is an initiative of Berlin galleries that stems from the desire to create a context in which the physical experience of art is maintained as a social space. On this occasion, Galeria Plan B will exhibit a selection of works by six artists from its program, which can be viewed both in the gallery space and on the Art Basel website. Beyond their different approaches – from painting and photography (Adrian Ghenie, Iulia Nistor, Serban Savu, Ran Zhang) to sculpture, drawing and installation (Ion Bitzan, Ciprian Muresan) – what brings these artists together is their interest to explore through art the social and cultural contexts they come from.

Participating galleries in Basel By Berlin: Galerie Guido W. Baudach, BORCH Gallery & Editions, Galerie Isabella Bortolozzi, BQ, Galerie Buchholz, Buchmann Galerie, carlier gebauer, ChertLüdde, Mehdi Chouakri, Contemporary Fine Arts, Konrad Fischer Galerie, Lars Friedrich, Tanya Leighton, Galerie Michael Haas, Galerie Max Hetzler, Kewenig, König Galerie, KOW, Meyer Riegger, Galeria Plan B, Gregor Podnar, Peres Projects, Galerie Nordenhake, Esther Schipper, Galerie Thomas Schulte, Soci  t  , Spr  th Magers, Barbara Thumm, Galerie Barbara Weiss, Wentrup, Barbara Wien.

Although the fair in Basel cannot be replaced, this group exhibition offers the artworks a physical space in addition to the virtual platform. On the duration of the Art Basel Online Viewing Rooms visitors are invited for an analog experience in our gallery. We look forward to your visit and are happy to arrange individual appointments in the gallery.
